

Scholarship Opportunities

We offer scholarship opportunities to academically outstanding students. Please visit our computer science department website below for qualifications.

Department Highlights

- Three programs: BS, MS, and Minor
- Comprehensive curriculum offering a wide variety of courses in both traditional and emerging fields
- Course sequences that explore specific areas in more depth
- Learning environment centered around student success
- Small class sizes in upper-division and graduate courses
- Ample opportunity for individual supervision and independent study
- Active faculty-supervised student research
- Active service-learning and community-engagement
- Internship opportunities at local and Bay Area companies

Dream Career Paths

Graduates from Department of Computer Science have been successful in many large national companies such as Apple, Boeing, Cisco, Google, HP, Microsoft, Oracle, VMWare, and local companies such as Pelco by Schneider Electric, Decipher, Famous Software, Barracuda Networks, and Decade Software.

Explore Our Education Opportunities

The field of computer science is one of the leading occupations for growth in 2014. Students receiving an education from California State University, Fresno will find themselves well prepared for this booming occupational field. Salaries vary depending on experience, companies, and locations.

Computer science is currently ranked amongst the top degrees in demand. According to sources, such as Forbes, the national average starting salary for a bachelor's degree in computer science is approximately $60k-$70k, with a mid-career salary of $100K.

California State University, Fresno takes an immense amount of pride in the well-being of our students, our amazing faculty, and resources for students to support a successful college journey. Please stop by and visit us today!

For information on academics, scholarships, internships, and financial aid please contact:

<http://www.fresnostate.edu/csm/csci/>

E-mail: cs@csufresno.edu

Phone: 559-278-4373

Follow us on Twitter and LinkedIn!!!

